Truth in New Proverb.
When hot air comes in the door patience flits out of the window.—Boston Herald.

Bound to Call Forth Criticism.
A judge who is never worth criticism is probably never worth anything at all.

Judging From Experience.
A little girl whose father was a commercial traveler sat on the porch holding a kitten, and creeping up close her mother heard this: "Kitty," said the young miss, "I know you an' I know your mamma an' I know all your little brothers an' sisters, but I ain't ever seen your papa"—then after a brief pause—"I spec he must be a traveling man."

Mother-of-Pearl.
The mother-of-pearl is obtained from a large species of shellfish called casque, caught chiefly on the shores of the island of Poulo-Condor.

Georgian's Hard Luck Story.
His horse went dead and his mule went lame and he lost six cows in a poker game; then a hurricane came on a summer's day and blew the house where he lived away, and the earthquake came when that was gone and swallowed the land that the house was on; then the tax collector came around and charged him up with the hole in the ground.—Upson Parrot.

In Praise of Good Humor.
Honest good humor is like the oil and wine of a merry meeting and there is no jovial companionship equal to that where the jokes are rather small and the laughter abundant.—Washington Irving.

Mumps Spread by Cat.
The rapid spread of an epidemic of mumps in a Pennsylvania town recently was attributed to a cat, which caught the disease by eating food handled by one of the earliest patients and gave it to other family pets.

Too Much Selfishness.
One of the reasons why the present age is said to be so exceptionally dismal is that so many men and women give themselves up to selfishness. Selfishness is the secret of unhappiness.

Why, of Course!
Howard, a child of three years, observed a hole in his dress and gathering up the part with the hole in it, in his little chubby hand, said: "Mamma, give me a sears." I asked him what he wanted them for, and he said: "I want to tut the hole out of my dress!"—Delineator.

If There's Anything in Caste.
East Indian peasants are called ryots. If a peasant is a ryot, we suppose a nobleman must be a regular ding busted revolution.

"Title Talks"

The Business of Abstracting

The business of Abstracting titles is of comparatively recent growth. As lands increase in value, the need of title security becomes more and more imperative. It is just as sensible to safeguard the title to a thousand dollar vacant lot or to any other property, as it is to keep your thousand dollar bond under lock and key. PROTECTION IN EITHER CASE IS THE THING SOUGHT. Good titles make real estate as negotiable as stocks and bonds. There is no way of being sure about the title except by the help of an abstract by a reliable company.
